Plaintiff Gini George appealed from the Order entered by this Court on December 1, 2005. However, as evidenced by this Court's Order, along with correspondence from plaintiff's counsel (both attached hereto), it is understood that counsel is not raising any issues on appeal regarding the granting of Summary Judgment in favor of Yolanda I. Mapp, M.D. and Temple University Hospital.

As such, this will represent the Opinion submitted on this Order. The Opinion should accompany and supplement the Opinion of Judge Lachman which discusses any issues raised by plaintiff regarding Rulings and Orders made by her in this case.

In the event that the plaintiff does request this Court to address issues associated with this Order, the Court hereby reserves the right to supplement this Opinion, with one that addresses the merits of plaintiffs statement of matters.
