

IN RE: YAZ®/YASMIN®/OCELLA® PRODUCT
LIABILITY LITIGATION

COURT OF COMMON PLEAS
PHILADELPHIA COUNTY

This Document Relates to All Actions

September Term, 2009

No. 1307

In Re: Yaz/Yasmin/Ocella Litigation-ORDER

DOCKETED
COMPLEX LIT CENTER

OCT 19 2010

J. STEWART

CASE MANAGEMENT ORDER NO. 3(b)

(Insurer Protective Order)

The parties, having agreed to supplement Case Management Order No. 3(a) (CMO-3(a)), it is HEREBY ORDERED:

1. This CMO supplements CMO No. 3(a) (Stipulated Protective Order).

Nothing in this Supplemental CMO is intended to be inconsistent with the terms of CMO No. 3 (a) and no provisions in CMO No. 3(a) shall be modified except as specifically set forth herein.

2. Bayer may provide documents designated “Confidential” or “Highly Confidential” to its insurers who have been identified to plaintiffs in this litigation in Defendants’ Response to the Plaintiffs’ Interrogatories to Defendants (set One), Interrogatory Number 23 and counsel for those insurers (or to insurers’ counsel to provide to the insurer(s)), provided that the conditions of this CMO are satisfied.

3. Any insurer and their counsel receiving any “Confidential” or “Highly Confidential” information shall comply with all terms of CMO No. 3(a) (Protective Order).

4. Prior to receipt of any “Confidential” or “Highly Confidential” information, any insurer receiving such information, a person with sufficient authority to bind each insurer, or its counsel who reviews “Confidential” or “Highly Confidential Information” shall execute an Acknowledgment to CMO No. 3(a) and provide a copy to Bayer's counsel on behalf of the insurer or law firm.

5. Bayer shall notify Liaison counsel in the Philadelphia Coordinated Proceedings of the name of each law firm or insurer whose Acknowledgment to CMO No. 3(a) has been received by Bayer's counsel.

6. Any materials provided to the Insurance Carrier or its law firm shall not be used for any purpose other than evaluation of the claims asserted in the Philadelphia Coordinated Proceedings and shall not be used outside the claims asserted in the Philadelphia Coordinated Proceedings.

IT IS SO ORDERED, BY THE COURT

October 18TH, 2010

Sandra Mazer Moss, J.