

The Philadelphia Courts

First Judicial District of Pennsylvania

Date: May 31st, 2020

All First Judicial District courts and offices will be CLOSED on Monday June 1st, 2020

Philadelphia, PA -- In accordance with the City's decision to close all municipal offices in order to ensure first responders have full access to all parts of the city, the FJD's Administrative Governing Board has announced that all courts and offices of the First Judicial District of Pennsylvania will be CLOSED --- Monday, June 1st, 2020. Employees should NOT report to work. Jurors, as previously notified, should NOT be reporting for service.

Arraignment Court, Bail Acceptance, and Emergency Protection from Abuse services WILL remain operational.

Electronic filing WILL also remain available.

Emergency filings, including election emergencies, may be filed electronically OR in the basement of the Stout Center for Criminal Justice.

####