

Public Notice

The United States Department of Justice, Bureau of Justice Assistance, has notified the City of Philadelphia that it is eligible for a formula grant through the Edward Byrne Memorial Justice Assistance Grant (JAG) Program. A copy of the solicitation for this 2021 grant can be found at <https://bja.ojp.gov/funding/opportunities/o-bja-2021-135004>. These grant funds are designated for criminal justice projects. The United States Department of Justice recommends that local jurisdictions seeking JAG funding should engage in comprehensive criminal justice planning, bringing together system stakeholders, including law enforcement, courts, prosecutors, defenders, and corrections officials.

In accordance with that recommendation, the Philadelphia Criminal Justice Advisory Board (CJAB) has created a Grants Subcommittee to provide recommendations relating to City criminal justice grant projects. This Subcommittee includes representatives from the key criminal justice stakeholder groups recommended by the United States Department of Justice.

The CJAB Grants Subcommittee intends to recommend to the CJAB that the City of Philadelphia submit a grant application no later than August 9, 2021 to the U.S. Department of Justice Bureau of Justice Assistance for JAG funding. The Grants Subcommittee has also identified projects for potential funding. The Subcommittee has sought to identify projects that are essential to protect public safety and help deliver essential criminal justice services more reliably and cost-effectively. These projects include initiatives for the Philadelphia Police Department,, the First Judicial District of PA, City of Philadelphia Office of Homeless Services, and the Defender Association of Philadelphia.

Comments relating to this proposed application may be submitted online to the City of Philadelphia, the Philadelphia Police Department, or the First Judicial District by emailing to: JAG@courts.phila.gov. This notice is viewable at www.courts.phila.gov
