

PHILADELPHIA DEPARTMENT OF HUMAN SERVICES
SCHOOL DISTRICT OF PHILADELPHIA
PHILADELPHIA FAMILY COURT

Academic Help Center

Academic Help Center
Mission

Bridging the gap between the Philadelphia Department of Human Services, School District of Philadelphia and Philadelphia Family Court, to assist young people in having a successful educational experience.

Academic Help Center

Mon – Fri

8:30am – 12pm
1pm – 3:30pm

William Lewis

Education Stability Coordinator

Office: 215-686-7797

Email:
Academic.Help.Center@phila.gov

1501 Arch Street

8th Floor, Room 860

Philadelphia, PA 19102

H – Helping to Unify Families, Schools, and Courts

E - Educational Records and Consults

L - Linkages to Supportive Services, Resources and Referrals

P - Positive Partnerships and Outcomes

The Academic Help Center works with youth referred by Philadelphia Family Court to support families by facilitating educational services.

The Academic Help Center can refer students and their families for a variety of assistance, including

- Academic Supports/Tutoring
- Counseling
- Physical, Mental, Behavioral Health
- Community Resources
- Specialized Services/IEP Request
- Bullying Issues
- Transfers/Re-Enrollments
- High School Selection Process

THE SCHOOL DISTRICT OF PHILADELPHIA

