

First Judicial District of Pennsylvania
Philadelphia Family Court
1501 Arch Street

Philadelphia Family Court Help Center
Clerk of Family Court, 1501 Arch Street, 11th Floor

Hours:

Custody

Monday – Friday 12:00pm-3:00pm

Services

Providing legal information* about Child Custody, including:

- Child custody basics
- How to file for custody (Sole, Primary, Shared, Partial, or Supervised Physical Custody)
- How to file other custody petitions, including:
 - Petition to Modify Custody Order
 - Petition for Contempt of Custody
 - Motion for Expedited Listing
 - Emergency Petition for Custody
 - Motion for Home Investigation
 - Motion for Mental Health Assessment
 - Motions About Section § 5329 Criminal Offenses
 - Motion for Reconsideration
 - Custody Stipulation
 - Relocation
- How to properly serve petitions/motions
- How to prepare for custody conferences and hearings
- A list of other resources

Divorce

Tuesdays and Thursdays 9:30am to 12:00noon

Services

Providing legal information* about Divorce, including:

- Divorce basics
- How to file for no-fault divorce (mutual consent or date of separation)
- How to properly serve divorce documents
- How to finalize the divorce

You can also access forms and information on the First Judicial District website under the
"FamilyDivision - Domestic Relations" section at: <http://www.courts.phila.gov/forms/>

You may download all custody forms with instructions from the Philadelphia Bar Association's website at:
<http://www.philadelphiabar.org/page/FamilyLawSectionResources?appNum=1>

You may also access forms and informational brochures at: <http://www.palawhelp.org/>

* The volunteers at the Help Center can provide information and forms, but are not able to provide legal advice. If you need legal advice about your particular circumstances you should contact a private attorney. If you do not have an attorney, you may be able to obtain one by contacting the Philadelphia Bar Association Lawyer Referral and Information Service at 215-238-6333.