PHILADELPHIA COURT OF COMMON PLEAS

TRIAL DIVISION – CIVIL

NOTICE TO THE BAR

PROTOCOL FOR AGREED UPON ORDER FOR EXTRAORDINARY RELIEF DURING COVID-19 JUDICIAL EMERGENCY
(MAJOR JURY, COMMERCE, NON-JURY AND ARBITRATION APPEALS PROGRAMS)

In light of the ongoing impediments to discovery created by the COVID-19 pandemic which are beyond the control of the Court, members of the bar and litigants, the Office of Judicial Records shall enter appropriate relief for parties including necessary discovery extensions in cases where there is agreement among the parties consistent with this protocol. Recognizing that no party should gain an advantage as a result of the pending judicial emergency and that appropriate equitable considerations must be applied so that matters proceed in a fair and just manner, the Court has adopted the following protocol for extraordinary relief of a case management deadline or deadlines where all parties consent.

Under this protocol no Discovery deadline shall extend beyond September 8, 2020. Any Case Management Order in which the Discovery deadline ends subsequent to March 1, 2020 may, by this protocol, extend the discovery deadline (thereby resetting all subsequent deadlines) until July 6, 2020, August 3, 2020 or September 8, 2020 by filing one of the attached Praecipes. No Date May Be Changed Within The Praecipe. Under this protocol, no expired Discovery deadline shall extend beyond September 8, 2020.

If a Motion for Extraordinary Relief has previously been filed, Counsel may file the Praecipe as a response to the Motion. The Control Number of the Motion must be in the caption of the Praecipe.

This Praecipe must be e-filed under the category (1) Motion/Petition (2) Motion for Extraordinary Relief. (This is for Court Administration purposes only. The submission will be docketed as a Praecipe.)

PROTOCOL FOR EXTRAORDINARY RELIEF BY CONSENT OF ALL PARTIES

The parties shall proceed with the filing of one of the attached Praeceptum for Agreed Upon Order for Extraordinary Relief. There is a presumption of good cause for any Praeceptum for Extraordinary Relief which complies with these terms. Consistent with this presumption of good cause, the Office of Judicial Records shall enter the agreed upon order filed pursuant to this protocol provided that such Praeceptum complies with the terms of this protocol and is consistent with the terms of the attached form. The parties shall maintain written confirmation as to the agreement to extend deadlines.

NOTE:

Nothing in this Protocol limits the ability of the parties to jointly or individually seek additional relief from case management deadlines by way of traditional motion practice once the judicial emergency has ended. Further, nothing in this Protocol limits the ability of any party upon expiration of the agreed-upon extended deadlines to unilaterally seek additional relief from any and all deadlines by way of appropriate motion or otherwise. Nothing in this Protocol prevents a party from filing a traditional Motion for Extraordinary Relief where there is not unanimous consent under this protocol.
