Supplemental Instructions

The federal Coronavirus Aid, Relief, and Economic Security Act, P.L. 116-136 (“CARES Act”) was enacted on March 27, 2020. Among other things, the CARES Act provides a temporary moratorium related to certain eviction actions. During the 120-day period following enactment, i.e., through July 25, 2020, a landlord may not “make, or cause to be made, any filing with the court of jurisdiction to initiate a legal action to recover possession of the covered dwelling from the tenant for nonpayment of rent or other fees or charges.” CARES Act, § 4024(b)(1). The moratorium also applies to the charging of “fees, penalties, or other charges to the tenant related to such nonpayment of rent.” CARES Act, § 4024(b)(2).

On July 16, 2020, the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania ordered that every action by a landlord against a tenant for the recovery of possession of real property filed in a magisterial district court or the Philadelphia Municipal Court shall be accompanied by an Affidavit of Compliance with the federal Coronavirus Aid, Relief, and Economic Security Act, P.L. 116-136 as available on the website of the Administrative Office of Pennsylvania Courts at <http://www.pacourts.us/forms/for-the-public> (for actions in magisterial district courts) or on the website of the Philadelphia Municipal Court at <https://www.courts.phila.gov/municipal/civil/>, respectively. The requirement is in effect through August 24, 2020 to ensure that a landlord has given the proper notice to vacate required by section 4024(c) of the CARES Act.

Landlords who are federally backed multifamily mortgage loan borrowers must continue to use the affidavit through the earlier of 60 days after the termination of the national emergency on COVID-19 as declared by the President or March 1, 2021. This requirement ensures that the landlord is compliant with the renter protections during a forbearance period afforded by section 4023(d) of the CARES Act, as well as the notice to vacate requirement of section 4023(e) of the CARES Act.

In addition to filing the affidavit with the complaint, a landlord shall demonstrate compliance with the CARES Act by presenting testimony and evidence including, but not limited to, the affidavit filed by the landlord at the inception of the case at the time of the hearing for the recovery of possession of real property. A tenant may present testimony and evidence that the landlord is not in compliance with the CARES Act.
